PEZ HEADS Flip Their Heads at the First Annual West Coast PEZ Convention

After the San Francisco Forty-Niners won Superbowl XXIX, Steve Young and Jerry Rice were asked, "Where are you going now?" Of course they replied "Disneyland!" But, if you had asked the same question to the 165 eager PEZ-HEADS on January 6th and 7th, we would have gleefully shouted, "The First Annual West Coast PEZ Convention!" We, enthusiastic lovers of this plastic pop-art toy converged in the pouring rain at the Santa Clara Marriott Hotel in Santa Clara, California. We shared in the festivities, new friendships and many PEZ purchases.

We began this extravaganza Friday evening in a room filled with large circular tables where we sat and played Bingo for PEZ. We delighted in marking our numbers on the bingo cards with PEZ candy. The only problem? We ran out of candy because a few hungry players couldn't stop eating it. The prizes were phenomenal and valued at $1,648. They included everything from PEZ t-shirts, hats, Frisbees, to a backpack. There were Annie and Captain Hook dispensers, a 1980s Space Gun, skateboards and a 4 person inflatable PEZ raft. Not only did friends compete to win, but PEZ Pals at each table teamed up and were heard chanting the last number needed in hopes someone from the table would be victorious.

Twenty-one games passed quickly. As soon as the last winner proclaimed "Bingo for PEZ," conventioners jumped to their starting blocks and sprinted upstairs for hours of room hopping. PEZ dispensers blanketed vendor's beds. One young lady devised an apron that held dispensers and dressed herself with "PEZ-4-Sale."

Before long it was Saturday morning and the rain was relentless... but did that stop us? No! We were "ready for showtime." Steve Glew, Mike Edelman, Lou Calderola, Jim Maley and other vendors setup their tables for the surprise of their lives. The doors opened at 9:30 a.m. for other those having registered for both days. PEZ Heads broke through like piranha, heading down the Amazon ready for a feeding frenzy. Few had ever seen so many dispensers. A table in the center of the hall displayed a few of our collections and acted as the central hub for PEZ Pals to collect their thoughts, show off their new PEZ purchases and just socialize with each other. Barry Koester from Stockton, CA, exhibited the rarest of dispensers from his private collection. There was Make-A-Face, Obelix, Asterix, Muselix and the Winter Olympic PEZ, to mention a few. One young lady, upon casting her eyes for the first time on Barry's Bride and Groom PEZ was overwhelmed with emotion and began to cry. She gasped and in her soft voice, further muffled by her hand to help hold back the tears, said, "I must have those for my wedding." Barry's quick wit surfaced when he replied with "Hmmm, I wonder if there's any money in renting PEZ?"

I acted as Master of Ceremonies and screamed out the 36 raffle prizes until my voice sounded like Wolfman Jack's. Some of the prizes included a Nurse and Snow White dispensers, PEZ skateboards and raft, real black Santa, 1950s Space Gun and a Bullwinkle dispenser. The total value of the raffle prizes was $1,735.

There were interviews, of course, with PEZ Heads who have collected for years. Jill Cohen, who delighted us with information about her upcoming PEZ-A-Mania V convention in Ohio, Barry Koester, and just about anyone who didn't respond with my pleas with "Just leave me alone."

The news media coverage was most helpful with front-page coverage by the San Jose Mercury newspaper, as well as local TV and radio stations thirsty for an upbeat news scoop.

Like playing musical chairs, participants moved from the show hall to the auction

Volume 3 Issue 2

Please pay attention when you submit an ad for publication in this newsletter. Not one was of the proper size and had to be manipulated to fit within the confines of these pages.

Positively PEZ will cease publication ending with the January/February 1996 issue. If you plan on renewing, please remit appropriately, at the rate of $3 per issue.

If anyone has interest in doing a PEZ publication, submit an ad and I will publish it for free beginning with the September/October 1995 issue.

I will have published 20 issues when the last issue is mailed. I cannot continue with all the money I have lost with this newsletter. I am currently back in college and work one full-time job and two part-time jobs. I have approximately 6-8 hours of free time a week and I must use this time to do my homework and spend time with Crystal.

room where a standing room only crowd set out to get their best buys of the day. There was a Bozo Die-Cut that went for $75, Uncle Sam, PEZ shirts, a skateboard and far too many items to list at near-steal prizes. And as usual at auctions, there was that one wise guy who would keep us laughing by increasing the bid just before the auctioneer said "Sold!"

We would like to thank some wonderful people who made this convention a joyous event. First thanks to Steve Glew, his family Kathy, Mariah and son Joshua and Joshua Productions for initiating the convention. They "flipped-the-tab" for all the expenses, prizes, hotel and advertising, and gave personal assistance when needed. By the way, the $2,000 profit from the show was donated to the Beekman Center Handicapped Horseback Riding program for the mentally and physically handicapped in Lansing, MI. PEZ really does help others! You can contact Steve (517) 669-5931 to purchase an XL or XXL original convention t-shirt ($15) or XL sweatshirt ($25). These proceeds will be directed to the Beekman center, too.

Thanks to Linda, Skeet and Stephanie Rose, Michael Berta, D e r r e l Houdashelt and Lew Hoffman for their continuous and laudable assistance. Thanks to Barry Koester for bringing his PEZ so we could drool over them. And, finally a big thank you to Jill Cohen for her advice, support and assistance.

All-in-all, the convention was a huge success, and left its participants looking forward to the Second Annual West Coast PEZ Convention. And guess what? You can bet you great Aunt Nelda's best pair of silk stocking that we'll have one!

Letters

Larry,
The California CDC was a great way to get a mid-winter PEZ fix. Last year I was able to expand on the goodies in the registration bags, now Steve and associates have shown me how much fun it is for everyone to have the chance to win great prizes. I've added bingo for PEZ to our agenda because it was a nice icebreaker and because everyone loved the chance to win.

It really helps if everyone registers early. The screen printer and the hotel catering staff need to know final totals several weeks before the convention.

Already over 25 people have sent in their registrations. In the past I've used every persuasion technique I know to try to motivate people to register early. This year I'm going to go a step further to reward early registration with incentive prizes. The first 100 people to register this year will get a special convention souvenir as a bonus. So send your registration today.

In the confirmation letters and this issue of Positively PEZ I have included a flyer that you can take and have photocopied to distribute at shows, shops, and anywhere a collector might see it.

Also many of you have had stories written about your collection, or work at companies that are large enough to have company newsletters. Now is the time to contact these sources and tell them about the convention. When people find out that this hobby has three conventions, several books, and this newsletter, they are encouraged to start a collection of their own or to go up into the attic and pull great stuff to sell us.

PEZ EUROPE INTRODUCES NEW PRODUCT LINE

I asked one of my candy suppliers to pick up PEZ literature at the Cologne Candy Expo and he sent me a four page brochure for an incredible new product. It is called Body Parts (they are using the English name). I don't read German so I can not tell when they are planning to ship them.

The product is a full bodied plastic costume and there are eight styles. Ritter (knight w/sword), Tarzan, Kellnerin (looks like a maid and has a pitcher), Robin Hood (has bow), Krankenschwester (nurse w/first aid bag), Sportler (hockey player w/stick), Skelett (skeleton) & Abendkleid (looks like a lady w/purse).

Each style has arms, shoulders, shoes and a front and back body. Some have accessories. They will be advertised in 13 different comic books and they will have their own floor display with a header card featuring Fred Flintstone.

My candy broker tells me that PEZ USA will start shipping the dinosaurs in April. Still no sightings on the Dream Castle bear.

Save the PEZ,

JILL COHEN

Larry,

Just received my second issue of Positively PEZ. Spent the night sending out orders.

Possibly someone out there can inform us how much loss you take on a PEZ with a "floppy head," melt marks, damaged and/or cracked stem, etc. There are so many damaged PEZ out there it's hard to know whether to make the purchase or not.

Also, should we be aware of any PEZ that are going to be discontinued or introduced and is there any plan for PEZ Co. to change the patent number?

Keep up the great work.

GARY OLSEN

Crystal & Larry,

I have enjoyed your newsletter since I became a new collector a year ago. I grew up in Austria, and my governess (who died last year at age 90) was actually governess to the Haas family in the 1950s right before I was born. She often talked about how Mr. Haas would never leave the house without a PEZ dispenser in his pocket. There is still a "Haas House" right in the center of Vienna, opposite St. Stephens Cathedral.

I have heard that the film "The Client" (based on John Grisham's book) has a scene in which a guy from the mafia tries to get information from a child by offering him a PEZ!

Sincerely,

ESTHER D. ROTHBLUM, Ph. D.

Positively PEZ,

Many "Thanks" for your fine publication, even the last small issue.

I'm fairly new at collecting. I'm retired and spend a day or so a week visiting the stores. The chains are different. One store has plenty in stock. The same store in the chain in another city doesn't carry PEZ. And very often in Rhode Island the PEZ show up where you least expect them. At any rate a lot of fun.

One reason for writing also is I still don't know what some abbreviations stand for. Perhaps someone could write a short explanation in a future issue. I still don't know what MIP, MOC and MIB stand for.

Also are the Canadian PEZ the same as U.S. PEZ.

Sincerely,

AL MEDAS

MIP - Mint In the Package, MOC - Mint On the Card and MIB - Mint In the Bag.

No PEZ made for the United States stays in the United States. PEZ sold in Canada are distributed from Vienna, Austria and are sold in Europe, Australia and Canada. There are some PEZ however that are sold both in Canada and the United States.

Crystal & Larry,

Hi. My name is Kristen O'Halloran. I am an 13-year-old girl who lives in California. I also love to collect Goofys. Right now I have a collection of over 60 Goofys. Unfortunately I do not have a Goofy PEZ dispenser in my collection. Over about the last year I have been searching for one, but have had no luck.

I have looked in many stores including: Wal-Mart, Target, K-Mart, Toys-R-U's, KB toy store, Payless drugs and many more. Most had Disney PEZ, but only Donald and Mickey. I have called the PEZ Company in Connecticut but all they did was name some stores. They would not send me one. They told me they still make Goofy, so I have not lost hope.

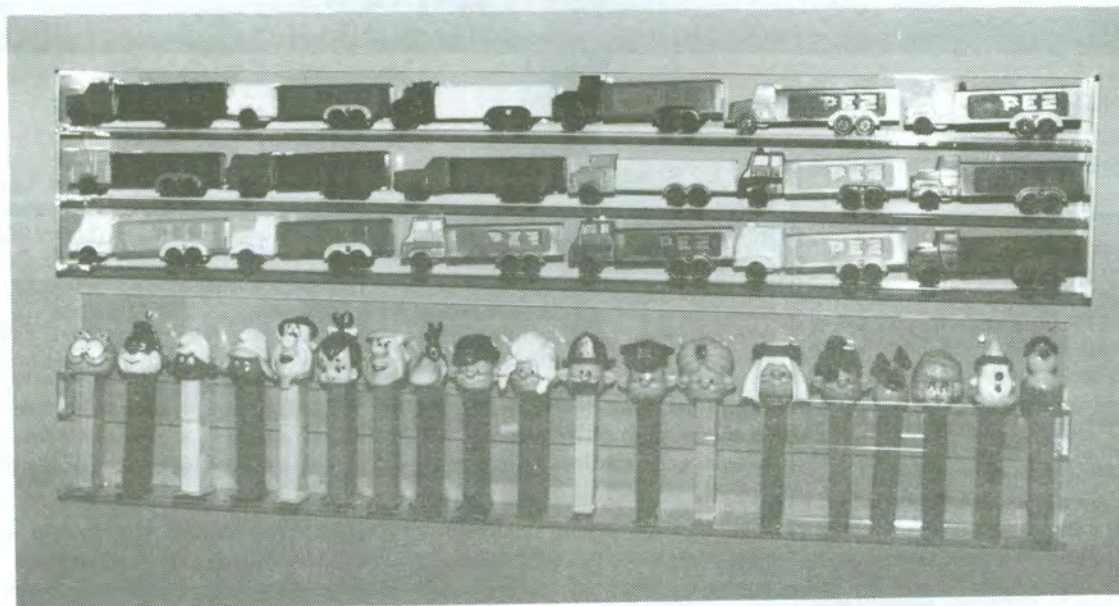

I read a story about collectible PEZ dispensers in the newspaper and the story mentioned your newsletter. That is why I'm writing. I was hoping you could help. Maybe you know how I could find one, new or old, I don't care as long as its in goof condition. Maybe you have some way for me to advertise for one or something. Anyway you could help would be really appreciated. Thanks!

Sincerely,

KRISTEN O'HALLORAN

Ask Maria

Maria Straus

We should all visit our "PEZ Pals" in sunny Florida. We could search for PEZ at tag sales and flea markets.

Question from California:

11 of our grandkids are into PEZ collections. They use their allowances to buy PEZ. Of course, we dote on them a little too.

We used your list in the November issue and we have found 17 different kinds.

Then we took Larry's advice and got in touch with a distributor. But she said that she won't be ordering any different PEZ until her stock runs low.

I left my phone number, but so far, she had not called. Could you look around your area and get some for us? I would need 11 of each.

By the way, the PEZ Company should give Larry and also you some of award for your promotional newsletter. Great work!

Answer:

First you should call your distributor back. Remember, she is human, and may have misplaced your phone number. And then, yes, we are glad to shop around our area and send you some PEZ just for cost and postage. This applies to new USA PEZ only.

The PEZ Company had made strides to overcome this problem of distribution. They offer a line of "Favorites." This includes a few PEZ from each of their standard assortments, except their seasonal PEZ. Several retailers in our area sell Favorites and their display has rapid turnover.

Question from Texas:

Your list in the November PEZ magazine should also say Donald Duck and Daffy Duck. Could you run the list every third or fourth issue? Sometimes I loan out my magazine and don't get it back. Also, new people are joining up every issue.

Answer:

Yes, you are right. The two ducks should be on the list. Also, now add on Santa C w/Eyes and the four Dinosaurs. Wow! That is over 60 PEZ to look for new in stores. I think that is a record high of different kinds of PEZ. What a lot of fun for the New Collectors! You can make a nice display without spending a lot.

Here is a list of all PEZ that it is possible to find currently in stores in the U.S. You must remember that distribution is not the same all over the country and some are seasonal.

They are listed in the order given on the Positively PEZ checklist for your convenience.

Question from New Jersey:

We seem to be at a stand still. We have all the new PEZ and a few of the less expensive old kind. We built a nice rack. How can we keep the fun alive? We can't spend a lot.

Answer:

Let's see if others have some suggestions. You could work up a twenty minute program. Write up some special points of interest, maybe a little history. Go to your elementary school and offer to do about a twenty minute program. Little groups such as Brownies and Cub Scouts are always looking for interesting programs. Round out your display with a few pictures. It is fun to see how much the kids enjoy the PEZ.

HOW YOU MAY EARN BIG PROFITS

FROM

IF I TOLD YOU HOW TO INVEST 89¢ TODAY AND PERHAPS, SUBSEQUENTLY EARN $500.00 - $1,000.00 ON THAT PALTRY SUM... WOULD YOU BE INTERESTED?

SURE YOU WOULD! THEN, IF I SHOWED YOU HOW OTHER PEOPLE JUST LIKE YOU EARN UPWARDS OF $5,000.00 - $10,000.00 ON WEEKENDS... MAYBE, YOU SHOULD LISTEN UP!

THE EXCITEMENT BEGINS!

A couple years ago, on a lark, I bought my wife a Mickey Mouse PEZ®... you know... those cute little plastic candy dispensers with different cartoon characters: You flip back the head and out pops a delicious oblong piece of candy... yeah, THOSE things!

Well, little did I know that single PEZ® purchase would lead not only to a huge personal collection of the things, but to an enormous amount of research spanning several continents, plus the discovery of an entire 'underground' international business from which YOU stand to make many thousands of dollars - as soon as you learn how!

HERE'S HOW!

PEZ® dispensers (plus similar products from other companies) have been around for a half a century now, and as a kid, no doubt you, like everyone else, had a few... remember? Popeye... Droopy Dog... Donald Duck... Batman... Snow White - and all the rest of those tiny guys and gals, always ready with a sweet reward. Just tilt their head and enjoy that scrumptious delight!

Because these things are so cute and interesting, folks started collecting them, and in time they became an integral part of the so-called 'Pop Culture.' (One appeared in ROB REINER's movie, "Stand By Me," as well as in the T.V. show, "Seinfeld.")

As with any hobby involving collectibles, a finite supply of product is chased by an infinite number of eager collectors causing prices to edge up... then they spurt... and eventually, they SOAR! That has already started to happen: Many PEZ® once available for 50¢ - 75¢ today fetch from $50.00 to $500.00 to... hold on... $5,000.00! A basic collection of about 250 is worth over $25,000.00! Recently, the venerable fine arts auction house, CHRISTIES, (New York) held it's very first auction of PEZ® products: Do you realize what all this means?

PSST... WANNA KNOW A SECRET...?

I'll tell you, because that's my job - my LIFE'S job (for the past 30+ years) has been investigating and reporting all sorts of unique and EXCITING wealth-producing techniques and 'inside secrets.' In fact, I publish one of the most successful periodicals of our time devoted to such matters (PERSONAL SUCCESS™ - THE NEWSLETTER), and for 16 years I was also the editor-in-chief of the internationally acclaimed, DAX MONEY-MAKER®... so I REALLY

For the past 30+ years, Du Vall has captured the imagination of men and women the world over by providing solid, unique direction in their quest for financial freedom. His firm is headquartered in Michigan with international marketing offices in Hong Kong (Known as DAX International, John W. Lane, President). In addition to producing some four dozen publications on money-making/self-improvement themes, Du Vall is also the creator of the popular Derek Dax adventure/mystery series and the author of the police intrigue novel, "The Big Dream" (published by Lyle Stuart, Inc., New York).

Dean F. V. Du Vall

His writings have been used in numerous style and content workshops and accredited courses at such institutions as California State University, UCLA, Fordham, University of Illinois and Worcester Polytechnic Institute. He is also the publisher of PERSONAL SUCCESS™ - THE NEWSLETTER.

In a career of parallel success and international acceptance, he is an abstract expressionist oil painter who exhibits worldwide under just the name 'du Vall.' His works are eagerly acquired at significant prices by astute private collectors in the U.S., Europe and Asia.

DO know whereof I speak, and here is what I'm 'speaking' right now about PEZ®:

- Only a few hundred people worldwide are known to be SERIOUS PEZ® collectors. For a comparison, some 500 million people collect stamps; the PEZ® field is virtually wide open!

- The number of PEZ® collectors is growing as both print and electronic media jump on the bandwagon daily. (THE WALL STREET JOURNAL... HARD COPY... ENTERTAINMENT TONIGHT... all major collectible magazines, etc.) There are tens of millions of potential collectors yet to join the ranks - and each of them needs and will pay dearly for their personal 'supply.' YOU could be that supplier and reap huge financial rewards!

- Some 40 different PEZ® pieces are currently manufactured and available at department, discount or drug stores for less than a buck. Some of these are already sought by collectors due to perceived scarcity or slight 'variations' in production. Do you know which ones to buy cheaply in quantities and hoard? Do you know why? How long will you need to wait to 'cash in'? How about... THE NEXT DAY... in certain cases?!

- PEZ® dispensers are plastic - they hold up well and are not subject to dire deterioration as are postage stamps, porcelain vases, old newspapers, magazines, comic books, sports cards, etc. In short... PEZ® last and last and last...!

- To date, only about 250 different PEZ® products have been manufactured, and whilst that number is about doubled due to variations in colors, etc., there IS a limit to the number any one needs to acquire to complete a collection. This is important to many who otherwise refuse to become collectors of items where there is NO possibility of ever assembling a 100% complete collection. (Can you imagine trying to get every single kind of matchbook cover ever made? Automobiles? Coins? Stamps? Stuffed animals? Salt/pepper shakers? Why, you could go nuts!)

- The future appears boundless for the PEZ® hobby! Everyone is able to START a collection easily and at very small cost. However, the SECONDARY MARKET (where prices escalate as collectors seek out the more unusual PEZ® characters manufactured during the past half century) is where YOU may well make your mark and earn PEZ® PROFITS beyond your wildest dreams - once you learn WHERE to look, HOW to acquire, then how to MARKET your acquisitions at astounding prices!

YOU LEARN HOW... NOW!

In my brand new, just-published comprehensive mind-blowing, eye-popping, wallet-bulging special report you WILL learn:

- Where to find potentially very valuable PEZ® dispensers for virtual pennies each!

- Once you learn where to locate the 'hard-to-find' pieces, plus the special technique I've developed to inspire an entire cadre of OTHER PEOPLE TO FIND AND BRING TO YOU those valuable pieces, you'll need to know how to quickly market these 'finds' at maximum profits: I'll show you exactly how - and even provide actual names, addresses, phone and FAX numbers of the 'movers 'n shakers' of the hobby/investment world - to ensure your success!

- How to get the best price for your individual pieces or an entire collection - enormous, multi-thousand dollar profits could be yours!

- Source data on PEZ® conventions (they're a blast!)... auctions... newsletters, pricing guides and other related, vital hobby/business information to help you realize maximum PERSONAL SUCCESS™.

Look... all this is just plain "PEZ® PHUN & PROFITS!" These little things are all around you... now, just as they've been since your childhood! Why not enjoy the little beasts to the max - both esthetically and financially!

Order today... you will be forever glad you did: PLEASURE GUARANTEED!

ORIGINAL GOOFY
WITH DBP 818.829 STEM $30

DBP means German Council patent. It is unusual to get dispensers with this patent number. Rumor has it that it was invented to overcome annoying customs problems when those PEZ were exported from Austria to Germany. This Goofy has no feet and removable teeth and nose.
